

Board has new treasurer

Board member Wayne Gay has taken over the task of HCHA treasurer. Former treasurer Suellen Forsyth remains on the board, but asked to step down as treasurer due to increasing job and family responsibilities.

We thank Suellen for the great job she has done maintaining our accounts and caring for other financial matters for HCHA.

Dues checks should now be addressed to Wayne Gay at 6440 Hillcrest Crossing South.

Remember that dues have increased this year to $165 per quarter. We are blessed to have been able to keep HCHA rates at a reasonable level for so long.

Other officers of the board are Joe Steen, vice president, Marsha Deangelis, secretary and John Sellers, president.

Charles Snyder is our lawn maintenance liaison and Roy Carter serves as board member at large, as does Suellen.

‘Til the storm passes by

Many Mobilians are still waiting for help from insurance companies and from government agencies to fix up and clean up after a tornado that ripped through Mobile on Christmas day.

The photo at left shows the storm as it moved northeast into midtown Mobile just a few miles east of us. The shot was taken from the back porch of 1217 W.

From where the photographer stood, he could see a television inside showing the storm hitting transformers in and around Brookley Field.

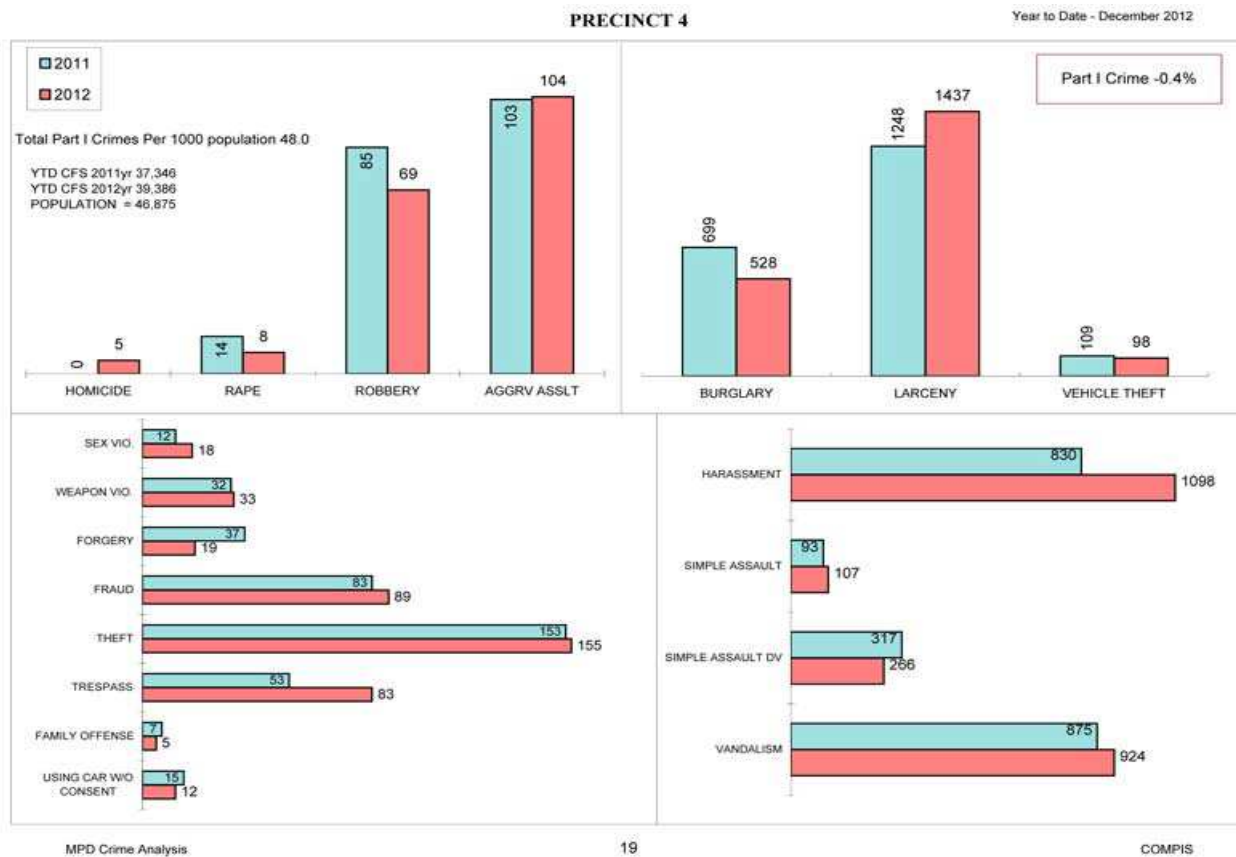

How blessed we are. No one in Mobile was killed or seriously injured.
