

Springtime brings renewal projects in the neighborhood

The neighborhood has benefited from efforts of some residents to renew roofs and fences, plant new shrubs and flowers.

Weather has been cooperating with roofers and other contractors to make sure their projects are completed on schedule.

Maintenance of residential property is an important factor in making sure houses and properties continue to increase in value and remain secure investments.

It is also a primary testimony that a community cares about each other and the neighborhood.

Thanks to those who have completed projects, and may those who are gearing up for changes be blessed with success.

In the works

GASLIGHTS: The Board has ordered a solar-powered gaslight fixture, which we hope will easily replace natural gas gaslight fixtures for those who want to change. This solar lamp costs about $130. We will keep you posted.

LANDSCAPING: Residents should soon see work begin to restore and improve our landscape at the entrance of our neighborhood. Please be patient, this will be a large project that will take several days.

The Spring Party

We are looking for a home to host our spring party, which is tentatively scheduled for May 8. The get-together is a time for all to get acquainted and have a time of fellowship and good food. The association will provide the meat dish, drinks and ice. Those attending are asked to bring a side dish, dessert or salad. Please let the board know if you would be willing to let us use your backyard. E-mail me at jis301@jaguar1.usouthal.edu or call me at 633-4837.

E-mail delivery of the newsletter and homepage

Provide us with your e-mail address and we will deliver the newsletter to you as a pdf.

For quick and easy delivery, please e-mail John Sellers at:

Daughter wants to sell house for her mother

Paula Weldon, Frances Taylor's daughter, has asked the association to announce that 1204 East is for sale and the family would like to sell it without listing it.

Frances has been moved to Allen Memorial for help contending with worsening effects of Alzheimer's disease.

Paula requested we announce this in the newsletter. She said that because of these developments in her mother's health, they would like to sell the house "as is" and offer the buyer a good deal.

Paula's contact number is 343-9798.

Replacing a fence is a shared responsibility among adjoining neighbors

Replacing your fence is not like replacing your roof. In Hillcrest Crossing, residents are charged with making fence replacement a shared responsibility. Get with your neighbors, whose fences border you, and arrange to share the cost of repairing or replacing your fences when the time comes.

You may have as many as four neighbors with whom to deal, but if one agrees to act as a project coordinator, contractor negotiations can be simplified.

Charles Snyder decided to provide the labor and let his neighbors share in the cost of materials. His work certainly made a difference.
